1. Organizational work of the outlawed Febrerista Party of Paraguay has recently shown a marked increase among the underground Febrerista cells in Asuncion. Dr. Raimundo Paniagua is reported to be a prominent leader of the Party in the Paraguayan capital.

2. Renewed Febrerista activity has been confirmed by a second source who believes that the Febreristas are planning a coup. According to this source, the number of Febrerista militants in Asuncion has been underestimated and large Febrerista elements also exist in the Paraguayan army.

3. Febrerista Party propaganda is evidencing a strong "anti-imperialist" tendency which is an indication of increasing Communist infiltration into the Party, according to a Febrerista informant of source.

4. No undue activity has been noted as yet among the exiled Febrerista party leaders in Argentina.
